Dear friends,

As you know our dear friend JP Li passed away on Sunday, January 12th, 2014. From the onset of discomfort to his tragic death, it was only 3 hours! All of us are shocked to learn about his sudden passing.

As a matter of fact, some of us were expecting to see him the next day for a project at work; some of us were expecting to have a get-together lunch to hear his exciting trip to China; some were expecting to meet him at the yearly Photonics West show in San Francisco; and some were expecting to see him at the 30 year Qinghua (college) class reunion in April.... No one could comprehend what happened to JP. We are all succumbed to this overwhelming sadness with a very heavy heart.

While we are all in deep grief, we also have to look ahead to the life without JP. We all love JP dearly and we all want to help.

As you know JP and his wife Ying have two kids: Jessica is 14 and Bryan is yet to turn 4. JP also was the only son in his family back in China. He was the one to support/help his father and 4 younger sisters in China (both emotionally and financially). It is beyond our imagination how devastating this is to his family.

At the moment, JP's wife Ying is working on selling their current house then downgrading to a smaller house or apartment so she does not have to bear the burden of the huge mortgage. However, to keep Jessica in the same school until her graduation will be challenging after selling their house. Meanwhile, Ying is facing numerous other challenges without JP by her side.

We (JP's friends in the Bay Area) have set up a Trust Fund JESSICA LI AND BRYAN LI TRUST in the name of JP's two children (see next 2 pages for donation instruction). We strongly encourage everyone to help out. JP was such a wonderful person and many of us have been directly or indirectly touched by him. Any one attended his funeral was so proud of being JP's friend. As one of his co-workers from Applied Materials said: "What a privilege to have JP in my life!" If this would have happened to anyone else, JP himself would've done all his best to help-- that we know for sure!

JP's colleagues at Applied Materials are working in parallel to find ways to help JP's family.

So everyone, as lucky as we are, we should treasure every day that we live. JP's passing reminds us how wonderful it is to be alive. We all should take good care of ourselves. Nothing is more valuable than life. Slow down, enjoy every moment, and help each other.

Please lend your helping hand by making a donation to the trust fund.

Love you all!

JP's friends

Donation to the family of JP Li (李济平)

The trust account is now open. Please write a check payable to 'JESSICA LI AND BRYAN LI TRUST'.

You can either mail the check or personally deliver the check to

Ying Wang
3985 Bibbits Dr.
Palo Alto, CA94303
U.S.A.

You can also write checks directly payable to Ying Wang.

There is no limitation on the donation format.

Selling the existing house will take some time. So at least, in the next few months JP's wife and kids will be at the same address.
